

TRANSFORMING CPD

In an educational landscape where pressure is mounting around recruitment, retention, pupil outcomes and quality of teaching, there has never been a more important time to invest in staff development.

The Teacher Development Trust is the national charity for effective professional development in schools.

Powerful professional learning helps children succeed and teachers thrive

£33 AVERAGE SPEND

The cost per pupil on staff development, with 21,000 teachers reporting no budget

4 DAYS

The average time spent by teachers' in England on CPD per year, compared with a global average of 10.5 days

1 in 10

The number of teachers who left the profession last year. Of these, increasing amounts are leaving for other sectors rather than retiring

“Engaging with the TDT has really challenged our thinking and practice in the key areas of commissioning and evaluating the impact of our CPD. The organisation has an impressive level of expertise in lesson study; understands what constitutes high quality CPD for staff and there is a growing network to engage with and support you.”

Stephen Tierney, St Mary's Catholic College

EVENTS

Upcoming events for 2017-18 include conferences for schools and training providers, one-day seminars, webinars, accredited Lesson Study courses and professional qualifications.
