This is followed by an 8-day assessment window where you will complete a 1500-word case study assessment to demonstrate your understanding of real leadership and change.

The course covers all of the core content in the government's Framework for this qualification and this is aligned with core themes around: effective communication, creating change, working with teams, managing yourself. Key areas include:

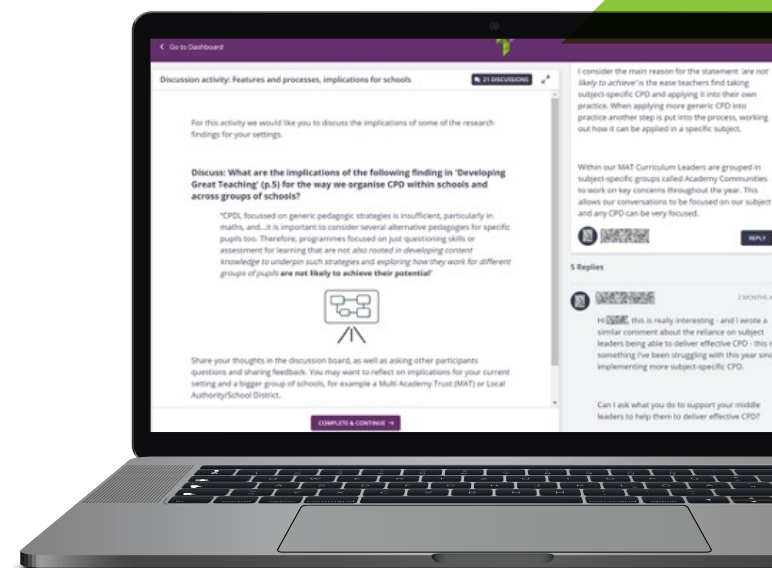

- Strategically leading effective teaching, curriculum, assessment and culture across schools
- Leading effective workforce development, change and implementation
- Creating and managing cross-school systems and processes, working with partners and boards

Benefits for your school or trust

- A skilful and research-informed executive leader with the capability to strategically lead a group of schools or trust
- Practical capability to get on with the job of developing others with the skills to lead with people and teams, creating change and impact
- A professionally aware and informed leader who can make evidence-based decisions and approach executive leadership in an effective and efficient manner
- The ability to review and evaluate practice in order to bring about change and get the best outcomes for young people and staff within the organisation

Suitability

A completely updated NPQEL for those who are, or are aspiring to be, an executive leader across schools or a trust CEO.

The course had a huge impact on my professional life this year [...] it reignited my desire to learn in an academic sense.”

“

One of the most powerful things about it has been that I feel empowered, by knowledge, by understanding and to enact change [...] crucially, ensuring a shared purpose with a strong focus on student outcomes must be central, to provide colleagues with the same empowered feeling.”
